

Petrovector SA

Company Overview

Geneva, 2022

General Information

Petrovector is a private trading company, for more than 10 years successfully operating on the international oil market

2010

Company creation, first partnerships establishment

2012

Active growth, expanding into the Central Asian market

2017

Settlement of Swiss entity, petrol stations launch

2021

Reaching new managing and trading level, 2m ton sold

The Company is owned by Anton Samokhvalov – trader and strategic manager with over 15 years of the professional experience

Key Company priorities shared by all the team members are project reliability and confidence, comprehensive individual approach and high security standards

Activity Highlights

Sales volumes by year, kT

2021 volume breakdown by product

Higher sales volumes in 2021 were largely achieved through establishing strong long-term cooperation with partners from the Central Asia, Black and Caspian Sea basin

Geography of Activity

Application of advance logistic schemes and flexibility in the contractual relations open access to various markets and grants additional opportunities for activity extension

Partners

One of the key aspects towards business success is time-tested cooperation with professional and reliable Partners. Petrovector SA highly values existing relationships and remains open to establishing new productive ones

Contacts

Petrovector SA

Rue Jean-Calvin, 12, 1204
Geneva, Switzerland

+41 22 552 41 99

mail@petrovector.com

www.petrovector.com

